

THE ROCKEFELLER UNIVERSITY
Tenth Annual Women & Science Spring Lecture and Luncheon

WOMEN IN SCIENCE
Pioneers, Progress and the Unfinished Agenda

Thursday, May 17, 2007

Lecture Noon to 1:15 p.m.
Luncheon 1:15 to 2:15 p.m.

The question we must ask as a society is not 'Can women excel in math, science and engineering?' . . . but 'How can we encourage more women with exceptional abilities to pursue careers in these fields?'

– The Presidents of Princeton, Stanford and MIT
February 2005

Featured Speaker

Titia de Lange, Ph.D.

Leon Hess Professor
Cell Biology and Genetics

Panelists

Mary Jeanne Kreek, M.D.

Patrick and Beatrice Haggerty Professor
Biology of Addictive Diseases

Leslie Vosshall, Ph.D.

Chemers Family Associate Professor
Neurogenetics and Behavior

To mark the influential first decade of Women & Science, three leading Rockefeller researchers will discuss the challenges that have confronted women pursuing scientific careers, review successes and controversies of recent years, and consider how to address gender inequities that remain in science today. The program will be moderated by Sir Paul Nurse, Nobel laureate and president of The Rockefeller University.

For ticket information, please call Ms. Laurel Birch at (212) 327-8963
or contact her at birchl@rockefeller.edu